

Corinne Pernet

Her interests focus on 20th Century Latin American and international history, with an emphasis on transnational movements. Having worked on cultural relations between the United States and Latin America, Prof. Pernet is currently finishing a book on the cultural aspects of Latin American engagement in the League of Nations and UNESCO. She is also starting on a research project on food policies in Latin America, especially as they relate to questions of development and cultural heritage. Having received her Ph.D. from the University of California, Prof. Pernet undertook post-doctoral research at the Universities of Illinois and Texas. After three years as assistant professor in the University of Oklahoma she took up the position of Oberassistentin in the History Department of the University of Zurich. She currently holds a SNF research professorship at the University of St. Gallen.
