

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jean-Michel Jacquet

- 1968-1981 Law studies at Robert-Schumann University, Strasbourg, France
- “Maîtrise” in Private Law
 - DEA in General Private Law (Diplôme d’études approfondies)
 - DEA in Droit de la société internationale
Université Panthéon Assas, Paris II
 - Ph.D. in Law (“Principe d’autonomie et contrats internationaux”; with distinction; received the jury’s congratulations)
- 1982 Assistant Professor in Private Law at Robert-Schumann University, Strasbourg, France
- 1983 Professor of Private Law (came second at the “aggregation” in Private Law and Criminal Sciences)
- 1983 – 1990 Professor at the Sheikh Anta Diop University of Dakar, Senegal
- 1990 – 1994 Professor at the University of Social Sciences Toulouse I, France and Director of the Albi University Centre, France
- As of 1994 Professor International Private Law and International Trade Law at the Graduate Institute of International Studies (HEI), Geneva, Switzerland
- From 01.10.2002 Director ad interim of the Institute HEI
Until 30.09.2004
- As of 01.01.2003 Director of the Journal du droit international (Clunet)

Delegate of France to the Working Group on International Arbitration of UNCITRAL
Numerous Academic missions in Africa, France, and Italy
Consultancies and arbitrations in the field of Private International Law and International Trade Law
Member of the French Committee of International Private law
Member of the French branch of the International Law Association