

THE GRADUATE INSTITUTE | GENEVA

INSTITUT DE HAUTES ÉTUDES
INTERNATIONALES ET DU DÉVELOPPEMENT

GRADUATE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies Geneva, Switzerland

invites applications for a full-time position at the rank of Associate Professor / Assistant Professor of

DEVELOPMENT ECONOMICS

with a specialisation in Applied Microeconomics starting on 1st September 2010 or a mutually agreed-upon date.

Candidates – men or women - must hold – or for candidates at the rank of assistant professor be expected to hold in the months ahead - a Ph.D. in Economics. They should have field research experience in developing countries, a strong analytical background, a proven ability to work with colleagues from other disciplines and, for more experienced scholars, a strong research track-record.

The successful candidate is expected to teach general and specialised graduate-level courses and, depending on the rank of the appointment, to supervise master and doctoral theses.

The language of instruction is either English or French, but candidates will be expected to soon acquire, if not already possess, a working knowledge of the other language.

Applications, including a detailed curriculum vitae and a list of publications – but excluding letters of recommendation and samples of publications -, must reach the Director, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, P.O. Box 136, 1211 Geneva 21, Switzerland (email: director@graduateinstitute.ch) by 1st October 2009.

General terms of appointment for a teaching position at the Institute may be obtained at the same address.

The Institute reserves the right to fill this position by invitation at any time.

For more information about the Institute, candidates are encouraged to consult the Institute's website: http://graduateinstitute.ch/open_positions