DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

THE INSTITUTE

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies is a leading institution of research and higher education dedicated to the study of world affairs, with a particular emphasis on the cross-cutting fields of international relations and development issues.

- The Institute offers disciplinary and interdisciplinary master and PhD programmes
- It produces both fundamental and applied research focusing on today's major international issues
- It provides expertise and training programmes and is a platform for debate and dialogue for international actors from the private, public and non-profit sectors
- It is accredited by the Swiss government and is enshrined in cantonal legislation as one of the institutions of higher education supported by the State of Geneva
- It is a private foundation whose Board is made up of prominent and independent figures from academia, international organisations, the media and the private sector
- It seeks to diversify its revenues through a strong public-private partnership strategy and has raised more than CHF 150 million since 2008 to support its academic development

THE CAMPUS DE LA PAIX

- Situated in the heart of International Geneva, the Campus de la paix stretches from the place des Nations to the shores of Lake Geneva
- It is a network of buildings which includes the Maison de la paix (inaugurated in 2014), the Edgar and Danièle de Picciotto Student House (inaugurated in 2012 and hosting 243 residents), the Rothschild Building (hosting the Geneva Centre for Education and Research in Humanitarian Action – CERAH – and the Network for international policies and cooperation in education and training – NORRAG) and two historic villas located by the lake, the Villa Barton (hosting Executive Education activities) and Villa Moynier (hosting Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights and Geneva Center for International Dispute Settlements – CIDS)
- In addition to the Graduate Institute, the Maison de la paix hosts other organisations that work on international issues, among which the Small Arms Survey (SAS), the Geneva Centre for Security Policy (GCSP), the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF), the Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining (GICHD), the World Business Council for Sustainable Development (WBCSD) and Interpeace
- The Maison de la paix and the Edgar and Danièle de Picciotto Student House are properties of the Institute and were built through private-public partnerships with substantial contributions from private donors, such as Mrs Kathryn Davis, an alumna, and Mr Edgar de Picciotto, as well as Swiss private foundations
