INNOVATION, EQUITY AND THE NEW HEALTH ECONOMY

UNIVERSAL HEALTH COVERAGE AND THE ROLE OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR

Thursday, 24 May 2018, 12:30 - 14:00
Auditorium Ivan Pictet, Maison de la paix

Economic development contributes to better health and may lead to Universal Health Coverage (UHC). However, the reverse argument is as crucial: The introduction of UHC can lead to quicker and more stable economic growth and can further boost the supply and demand for health and health-related services and goods.

Therefore, this event focuses on the health-economy nexus, the innovative power of the private sector's involvement in UHC, and the sometimes controversial dimensions of the role the private sector can play in helping countries to achieve UHC.
