

Protecting our Planet's Health: Growing Cities, Poor Nutrition, What Can Be Done?

When: Thursday, 10 November 2016, 17:30 - 19:00

Where: Auditorium Ivan Pictet, The Graduate Institute, Maison de la Paix

The Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) and the Global Health Centre of the Graduate Institute for International and Development Studies invite you to join us at the Auditorium Ivan Pictet of The Graduate Institute in Geneva to welcome our new Executive Director, Dr Lawrence Haddad and engage in a panel discussion on how to improve the nutrition of vulnerable urban populations.

Program of the event

Time	Panel	Duration	Speakers
17:30	Welcome note	5 minutes	Michaela Told, Executive Director, Global Health Centre, Graduate Institute
17:35	Keynote speech	10 minutes	Gerda Verburg, Coordinator, SUN Movement
17:45	Presentation on the Urban Nutrition challenges of the 21st Century	15 minutes	Lawrence Haddad, Executive Director, GAIN
18:00	Panel discussion on how to improve the nutrition of vulnerable urban populations Moderator: Lawrence Haddad, Executive Director, GAIN	20 minutes	Gerda Verburg, Coordinator, SUN Movement Ambassador Dr. Reinout Vos, Deputy Head of Mission, Permanent Representation of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Geneva Katia Santos Dias, Mozambique, Country Director, GAIN
18:20	Q & A session with the audience	25 minutes
18:45	Closing remarks	10 minutes	Guillaume Taylor, Co-founder & Managing Partner, Quadia, Member of the GAIN Board of Directors
19:00	End of the event and start of the reception to welcome Dr Lawrence Haddad as GAIN's new Executive Director		