

SEMESTER 1

Social Theory 1

- Get familiar with authors and concepts
- Situate anthropological and sociological schools of thought

Research Methods

- Develop skills in various techniques
- Interpret and integrate different types of data

SEMESTER 2

Social Theory 2

- Explore themes related to international and development studies

Ethnographic Fieldwork

- Learn by doing
- Practice ethnographic research

Critical Epistemologies

- (De)construct your research object
- Define your positionality

Elective Courses

SEMESTER 3

Research Design

- Build a literature review
- Relate theory with case and methods

SEMESTER 4

MA THESIS

Writing Workshop

- Use your data from fieldwork to craft your MA thesis
- Build your argument

Focus on specific themes: concepts and debates in development, international governance, violence and conflict, migration, biomedicines, markets and labour, inequality, gender, rural/urban, environment, visual anthropology...

