Digital Tools, Artificial Intelligence, Health and Human Rights
June 4-5, 2020
Program and Speakers

DAY ONE - Thursday, June 4th
Please join the discussion forum on Moodle to introduce yourself to the group, and to share links to your work or resources. Please post questions to the panelists on Zoom.
Time	Topic	Speaker
14:00 – 14:10	Welcome and introductions Overview to agenda	Meg Davis (Graduate Institute) Tony Sandset (University of Oslo)
Session 1: Opportunities and risks
14:10 – 14:30	Digital tools and AI for health: What are the opportunities?	Amandeep Gill (I-DAIR) Ilona Kickbusch (Lancet/FT Commission)
14:30 – 15:10	What risks have we learned about from the HIV & TB experience? Focus on biometrics, hotspot mapping, and HIV molecular surveillance	Allan Maleche & Nerima Were (KELIN) Rico Gustav (GNP+) Tony Sandset
15:10 – 15:40	Discussion	Meg Davis, moderator
15:40 - 55	Coffee break
Session 2: Digital tools, AI and health surveillance: Power and autonomy issues
15:55- 16:15	Can we ever really opt in or out of state-led digital surveillance "in the public interest"?	Adi Kuntsman, Manchester Metropolitan University Shen Tingting, UNAIDS HIV and Human Rights Reference Group
16:15 – 16:45	Discussion	Joe Amon (Drexel)
16:45-17:00	Reflections on first day	Kristin Heggen (University of Oslo)

Friday, June 5th
Please join the discussion forum on Moodle to share links to your work or resources. Please post questions to the panelists on Zoom.
Time	Topic	Speaker
Session 3: Evolving governance of digital tools and AI for health
14:00-14:20	What does a human rights analysis of artificial intelligence look like?	Meg Davis (Graduate Institute) Carmel Williams (U of Essex)
14:20 – 14:40	What work is already underway to advance rights-based governance of digital tools and AI for health? What next?	Kene Esom (UNDP) Fanny Hidvégi (Access Now)
14:40 – 15:30	Discussion	Mike Podmore (STOPAIDS), moderator
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break
Session 4: Using digital tools in advocacy for accountability
16:00 – 16:40	What does digital advocacy look like, and how could it develop in the future?	Sukti Dhital (NYU Bernstein Institute) Friedhelm Weinberg (HURIDOCS) Seeta Gangadharan (Our Data Bodies) Marianne Schoerling (Geneva Macro Labs)
16:40 – 17:45	Discussion and consultation: Who is doing what? How can we work together?	Meg and Tony
17:45 – 18:00	Reflections on second day Farewells	Vinh-Kim Nguyen (Graduate Institute)