

Global Governance Colloquium Series

Spring 2021

The series aims to build a denser research community by providing scholars of various governance issues a platform to present and discuss works in progress across disciplinary boundaries.

The Quiet Failures of Early Neoliberalism

Speaker: Jacqueline Best, Professor in the School of Political Studies, University of Ottawa
 Discussant: Juanita Uribe García, PhD candidate in International Relations/Political Science and Research assistant at the Global Governance Centre, the Graduate Institute
 When & Where: Monday, 1 March, 16:30 - 18:00 | online

The Theory of Legal Characters

Speaker: Mikhaïl Xifaras, Professor of Public Law, Sciences Po
 Discussant: Fuad Zarbiyev, Associate Professor of International Law and Co-Director, LL.M. in International Law, the Graduate Institute
 When & Where: Monday, 15 March, 12:30 - 14:00 | online

Le Tournant Social de l'International. Les Organisations Internationales

Speaker: Olivier Nay, Professeur de Science Politique, Université de Paris 1 - Panthéon Sorbonne Discussant: Francesco Corradini, Doctoral researcher in International Law, the Graduate Institute
 When & Where: Monday, 12 April, 12:30 - 14:00 | online, Maison de la paix

Double Agents and the Making of Globalization: How Global Boardrooms Shape the World Polity

Speakers: Leonard Seabrooke, Professor of International Political Economy and Economic Sociology in the Department of Organization, Copenhagen Business School
Alexander E. Kentikelenis, Assistant Professor, Department of Social and Political Sciences, Bocconi University
 Discussant: TBC
 When & Where: Monday, 26 April, 12:30 - 14:00 | online, Maison de la paix

The poverty of governing by cyber norms

Speaker: Xymena Kurowska, Associate Professor of International Affairs, Central European University
 Discussant: TBC
 When & Where: Tuesday, 11 May, 12:30 - 14:00 | Room S7 – Interpetal, Maison de la paix