

CIES INTERDISCIPLINARY SEMINARS AUTUMN 2021

The CIES Interdisciplinary Seminar Series is a series of internal research seminars on environmental, natural resources and development issues.

Thursday 7 October 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

The current science and politics of Amazonian Change: Tipping points, planetary Arson and bad politics

Susanna Hecht, Professor in International History and Politics, the Graduate Institute

Thursday 11 November 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

Welfare Effects of Cleaner Energy Access

Imelda, Assistant Professor in International Economics, the Graduate Institute

Thursday 21 October 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

The history of the oil energy transition in Latin America

Antoine Acker, Swiss National Science Foundation Eccellenza Professorial Fellow, International History and Politics, the Graduate Institute

Thursday 25 November 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

Tailoring seeds for climate change: Environmental customization and climate resilience in novel industrial seed systems

Diego Silva, CIES Postdoctoral Researcher

Thursday 4 November 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

Futuring a Sustainable Circular Economy in Europe

Eléonore Maitre-Ekern, CIES Visiting Fellow and Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Oslo

Thursday 2 December 2021

12:15 - 13:30, Room 847

Environmental regulation and the location of firms

Abay Mulatu, CIES Visiting Fellow and Associate Professor, University of Coventry

To participate (only internal):

➔ Please e-mail at: cies@graduateinstitute.ch to confirm your attendance.
In-person participation is limited to 8 attendees.
Refreshments will be offered to registered participants only.
Online participation available here: https://iheid.webex.com/meet/cies_webex