About the Global Migration Centre

The Global Migration Centre (GMC) conducts advanced research and provides policy-oriented expertise and publications on the multifaceted causes, patterns and consequences of global migration. While our primary function is to lead policy and academic research, we also regularly organise events, expert meetings and conferences. Through these various activities, we offer a unique interface between academia, the international community and civil society. The distinctive features and assets of GMC owe much to our focus on the transnational dimensions of migration and its interdisciplinary orientation in order to fully grasp the complexities of mobility in a globalised world.
