

RÉMI VINÉ

PERSONAL INFORMATION

email: remi.vine@graduateinstitute.ch
phone number: (+33)648061300
website: remivine.com
Birth: 1 October 1992
Nationalities: French & Swiss
Languages Spoken: French & English
Family: Married

EDUCATION

The Graduate Institute, Geneva September 2016 - May 2021
PhD (Honors) in International Economics
Supervisor Professor Slobodan Djajić
Thesis: Three essays on migration economics and remittances

Study Centre Gerzensee August 2018
Advanced Courses in Economics for Advanced Doctoral Students
Quantitative Models in International Trade (Samuel Kortum)

Paris-Dauphine University (Paris Sciences Lettres), Paris September 2013 - June 2015
MSc (Honors) in International and Development Economics
Thesis: Urban segregation and integration of immigrants in France

Lorraine University, Nancy September 2010 - June 2013
BSc (Honors) in Economics

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Family-based Migration	Migration Integration
Remittances and Development	Policy Coordination
Costs of Remittances	Life-cycle optimization
Climatic shocks	Consumption Structure

WORKING PAPERS

Do Schools Decrease Inequality? The Role of Economic Shocks – Evidence from Côte d'Ivoire

Economic Drivers of Family Reunification in a Context of International Migration

Tajikistan, Remittances, Expenditures & the Family left behind

Remittances, Prices, Shocks, and Market Frictions

EMPLOYMENT

Academic Supervisor*The Graduate Institute; March 2022 -*

Supervision of interdisciplinary master students in their Applied Research Project, for which they work in teams for an external partner on a given topic. I accompany the students in their progress and help with the methodological challenges they might face.

PostDoc*NCCR - The Migration-Mobility Nexus; June 2021 - February 2022*

PostDoc working on a research project related to education in a Sub-Saharan country. The research project analyzes the impact of rainfall shocks on the learning outcomes of primary school students.

Consultant*UNCTAD; February 2021 - May 2021*

Contribution to the writing of the World Investment Report 2021. I mostly worked on the impact (in particular on foreign direct investment) of rescue and recovery policies implemented by countries around the world with respect to the pandemic.

Teaching Assistant*The Graduate Institute; September 2017 - May 2021*

Statistical Methods for Social Sciences taught by Jean Swanson Autumns 2018, 2019, 2020

Qualitative Methods taught by Ashley Thornton and by Oliver Jütersonke Spring 2018 & 2021

The Capstone Project taught by Ugo Panizza Spring & Autumn 2019

The Law and Economics of Bargaining taught by Timothy Swanson Spring 2018

Asian Security System taught by Lanxin Xian Autumn 2017

Trade and Development taught by Julia Cajal Autumn 2017

Facilitator MOOC*The Graduate Institute; Geneva; May 2017 - June 2017*

International Affairs: Globalization taught by Richard Baldwin. I contributed to facilitate interactions on the platform among the learners.

Program Manager*Le cercle des économistes; Paris; November 2015 - July 2016*

Preparation of the Forum Les rencontres économiques d'Aix-en-Provence. This forum gathered about 250 speakers over 40 conferences. Speakers were economists, politicians, CEOs, leaders of international organization, etc.

Field Research Associate*J-PAL; Lorraine; September-October 2015*

Project about Primary Education about Sciences. I contributed to the data collection on the field.

Research Intern*Cercle Gépolitique; Paris; April 2015 - June 2015*

Research on urban segregation and integration of migrants. I focused on the link between integration, segregation and exogamy.

Intern*The Dariu Foundation; Ho Chi Minh City; May 2014 - July 2014*

Survey design, Implementation and Analysis

COMPUTER SKILLS

Programming Languages

Stata, R, Python

Software & ToolsMS Office, LibreOffice, L^AT_EXCONFERENCES AND SEMINARS

2021; Life in Kyrgyzstan (University of Central Asia); ASFE (University of Lille); ICDE (University of Bordeaux); 2020; YSEM (KOF, ETH Zurich); 2019 Junior Economic Workshop on Migration Research (ifo CEMIR, Munich); YSEM (Graduate Institute, Geneva); 3rd International Conference: Understanding Forced and Voluntary Migration (University of Lille)

OTHER COMMITMENTS

Municipal Councilor*City of Ferney-Voltaire; 2020-2026*

Member of the following commissions: Urbanism and Environment; Mobility and Large Projects; Participatory commission for the ecological transition

Volunteer Teacher

The Migration Initiative; Geneva; 2016-now

French classes to refugees (level: B2/C1)

President of a Sport Association

CTT Gessien; Ferney-Voltaire; 2022

Organization and development of the association, one full-time employee and 140 members

REFERENCES

Slobodan Djajić

Professor in Economics
The Graduate Institute - Geneva
slobodan.djajic@graduateinstitute.ch

Julia Cajal

Associate Professor in Economics
The Graduate Institute - Geneva
julia.cajal@graduateinstitute.ch

Bruno Casella

Senior Economist
UNCTAD
Bruno.casella@unctad.org

Jean Swanson

Professor of Statistics
The Graduate Institute - Geneva
jean.m.gorz@graduateinstitute.ch