

Global Governance Talks

Fall 2022

GENEVA
GRADUATE
INSTITUTE

GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
CENTRE

The Global Governance Talks series operates as a transdisciplinary space open to scholars and practitioners for critical, policy-relevant reflection on global governance practices and their transformations.

Partnerships for Sustainability in Contemporary Global Governance

Liliana Andonova (Geneva Graduate Institute), Moira Faul (Geneva Graduate Institute) & Dario Piselli (EEA)

Auditorium A2 | 18:30 – 20:00

Rethinking the Agency of “Governed” Subjects

Nadine Benedix (Technical University of Darmstadt)
Discussant: Isabel Pike (Geneva Graduate Institute)

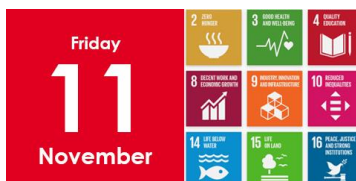

Room S8 | 12:30 - 14:00

The Economic Weapon: Sanctions and Globalization from the Interwar Period to Today

Nicholas Mulder (Cornell University)
Discussant: Farzan Sabet (UNIDR)

Room S4 | 12:30 - 14:00

Measuring the SDGs: Data Practices, Challenges, and Futures

Various speakers

Auditorium A2 | 16:00 - 17:30

Rethinking Nuclear Choices

Benoît Pelopidas (Sciences Po Paris)
Discussants: Grégoire Mallard (Geneva Graduate Institute) & Marc Finaud (GCSP)

Room S8 | 12:30 - 14:00

Transnational Advocacy in the Digital Era

Nina Hall (Johns Hopkins University)
Discussants: Cecilia Cannon (PoliSync) & Andreas Freimüller (Campax)

Room S8 | 12:30 - 14:00

Further information: globalgovernance@graduateinstitute.ch

