

PIERRE DU BOIS DOCTORAL WORKSHOP 2022

Histories of Capitalism in Europe and the World

Day 1: Thursday 29 September 2022 | 14:00 – 18:30

Maison de la paix, chemin Eugène-Rigot 2, 1202 Genève, PANEL 1 Room S8, ROUNDTABLE Room S8

14:00 – 14:15 OPENING REMARKS

14:15 – 16:15 PANEL 1

COLONIALISM AND ECONOMIC HISTORY

Chair: AMALIA RIBI FORCLAZ,
Geneva Graduate Institute

FILIFE MELO, European University Institute, Florence

- The Different Impacts of European Capitalist Development on the Cultivation of Brazilian Raw Cotton (c. 1750 – c. 1810)

ERNEST SASU KWAME SEWORDOR,
University of Basel

- No [African] Chief or King was party to the agreement': British Imperialism, Race, and Capitalist Transformations of Gold-mining Hinterlands in Colonial Ghana

AMAL SHAHID, Geneva Graduate Institute/
University of Lausanne

- Famine Relief, Labour and the Poorhouse in Colonial India c.1860-1920

Discussant: ANDREAS ECKERT,
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

16:15 – 16:45 Coffee break

16:45 – 18:15 ROUNDTABLE

METHODS AND APPROACHES TO ECONOMIC HISTORY*

With:

RUI ESTEVES, Geneva Graduate Institute

AMALIA RIBI FORCLAZ, Geneva Graduate Institute

NATHAN SUSSMAN, Geneva Graduate Institute

ANDREAS ECKERT, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

PILAR NOGUES-MARCO, University of Geneva

*Live streamed and recorded

19:00 Dinner by Invitation

REGISTER HERE

PIERRE DU BOIS DOCTORAL WORKSHOP 2022

Histories of Capitalism in Europe and the World

Day 2: Friday 30 September 2022 | 09:30 – 14:30

Maison de la paix, chemin Eugène-Rigot 2, 1202 Genève, PANEL 2 in Room S6, PANEL 3 in Room S8

9:30 – 11:00

PANEL 2

MULTISPECIES CAPITAL: COLONIZING AND COMMODITIZING NATURE

Chair: AIDAN RUSSELL, Geneva Graduate Institute

TOMAS BARTOLETTI,

European University Institute, Florence

- Economic Entomology and Commodity Frontiers in the Tropical World, c. 1890-1930: Towards a Multi-Species History of Global Capitalism

SABRINA SIGEL, University of Geneva

- What did Capitalists Think about Deforestation?: Reflections on Nature and Economic Exploitation in Newspapers in São Paulo, Brazil during the First Globalization

ANSHUL VERMA, Geneva Graduate Institute

- Churning Science, Milking Capital: Locating Colonial India in International Dairying (1920-9)

SEUN WILLIAMS, Geneva Graduate Institute

- Transforming 'An Undeveloped Nigerian Industry': Livestock Capitalism and the British Colonial Empire in Nigeria

Discussant: ERIC VANHAUTE, Ghent University

11:30 – 12:30

Coffee break/Lunch

FINANCIAL HISTORY

Chair: PILAR NOGUES-MARCO,
University of Geneva

QIUYANG CHEN, University of Warwick

- The Female Network of Private Microcredit: Its Boom and Bust on Southeast Coastal China, 1987-1992

FERNANDA CONFORTO DE OLIVEIRA,
Geneva Graduate Institute

- The IMF, Argentina, and Brazil in the post-war era, 1945-64: making sense of the IMF's views during financial negotiations

MICHELE ZAMPA, the Graduate Institute, Geneva

- An Analysis of Credit Allocation Patterns to the Non-Financial Sector under a State-Controlled Economy: The Case of IMI under the Fascist Regime

Discussant: JUAN FLORES,
University of Geneva

14:30

Networking Cocktail by Invitation