Professor Svitlana Ovcharenko is a visiting researcher in the International Relations and Political Science Department since November 2022 and has gained professional experience at Taras Shevchenko Kyiv National University, Ilya Mechnikov Odesa National University, National Academy of Public Management and Administration under the President of Ukraine. She focuses on implementing general theoretical knowledge from the philosophy of culture and aesthetics in the political and governance practices. The cross-cutting theme of scientific interests is the non-rational frames of thinking, which are revealed as the aesthetic characteristics of social action and communication, particularly during the current Russian-Ukrainian war.
