

PAUL GUGGENHEIM PRIZE 2023

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Prize, amounting to CHF 15'000, will be awarded to a monograph on an important theme in the field of public international law (except European law). The monograph must be of the highest quality and be the work of a young author at the beginning of his/her career. Works may be submitted in the form of published books or of manuscripts intended for publication, achieved or published not more than two years prior to the application; they may be written in English, French, German, Italian or Spanish. Works which have already been awarded a prize of a similar nature will not be considered. Applicants must specify whether the monograph submitted has already been awarded one or several prizes.

Applicants are requested to send to the Paul Guggenheim Foundation:

- A letter of application, a curriculum vitae and a list of publications - by e-mail to: info@fondationpaulguggenheim.ch
- Four copies of the work submitted to:
