

Global Governance Talks

Fall 2023

GENEVA
GRADUATE
INSTITUTE

GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
CENTRE

The Global Governance Talks series operates as a transdisciplinary space open to scholars and practitioners for critical, policy-relevant reflection on global governance practices and their transformations.

Contestations of the Liberal Script: Five Archetypes

Michael Zürn (WZB - Social Science Research Center Berlin)

Room S3 | 12:15 - 13:45

Book Launch: International Organizations and Research Methods An Introduction

Various speakers

Room S8 | 16:15 - 18:00

Through Image and Object: Constructing, Erasing, Living Visual International Law

Kate Miles (University of Cambridge)

Auditorium A2 | 12:30 - 14:00

Crisis Governance and Governing in a World of Crises

Lydie Cabane (Leiden University)

Room S3 | 12:30 - 14:00

"An Anomaly among Anomalies": Colonial Membership at the League of Nations

Thomas Gidney (Geneva Graduate Institute)

Room S8 | 14:15 - 16:00

