

Workshop Series: New Directions in the Theory & History of International Law

Workshop III:

The Province of International Law:
Space, Time, and Representation in International Legal History

Geneva, Switzerland – May 30 & 31, 2024

Convened by Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarín

Supported by SNSF Doc.CH Grant PoGEP1_20077/1 – ‘Architects of the Better World’

Geneva Graduate Institute

May 30, 2024

14:15-15:45 – Opening Keynote: “The Political Economy of Representation: Counter-archiving and International Legal History”

- Luis Eslava (La Trobe University & University of Kent)

Introductory remarks and moderation: Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarín (Geneva Graduate Institute)

Room A2

16:15-18:30 – Panel I – Representing Time

Room A2

16:15-16:30	“Anachronism and Imperial Gaze: Forgotten Debates on Wartime Sexual Violence in Nineteenth Century International Law” - Anastasia Hammerschmied (University of Vienna)
16:30-16:45	“The Colonial History of International Investment Law: Looking beyond the Mid-Twentieth Century” - Harshad Pathak (University of Geneva)
16:45-17:00	“For a Masculine and Latin-American International Law? An Analysis of the Discourses of Semi-peripheral Internationalists in the 20 th Century” - Manuela Camargo de Assis (University of Brasilia)
17:00-17:15	“Truth and Legal Judgement: History through the Lens” - Genevieve Renard Painter (Concordia University)

17:15-17:30	“Law versus Myth: AmerIndian Perspectivism and a Critique of International Law’s Historical Composition of Space and Time” - André Nunes Chaib (Maastricht University)
17:30-17:45	“From Here to Eternity? Time, History, and International Law” - Valentina Vadi (University of Florence & University of Padua)
17:45-18:30	Discussion

Moderator: Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarin - Discussant: Luis Eslava

May 31, 2024

10:00-12:15 – Panel II – Representing Place

Room A2

10:00-10:15	“Architecture, Artefacts, & Aspirations for Justice: The Design of the Criminal Courts of Ireland 1750-1850” - Lorna Cameron (University of Lincoln)
10:15-10:30	“Kowloon Walled City: Rival Jurisdictions and Lawlessness” - Yilin Wang (University of Macao)
10:30-10:45	“The Depoliticization of the Indus Rivers: International Law in Kashmir” - Rishabh Bajoria (University of Cambridge)
10:45-11:00	“Worldmaking through the Practice of Contracting: Reterritorializing the Exercise of Authority and Law-making” - Gail Lythgoe (University of Edinburgh)
11:00-11:15	“Building the Peace Palace: Transnational Politics and Local Labor” - Tanja Aalberts and Sofia Stolk (VU Amsterdam)
11:15-11:30	“The Vienna World Conference on Human Rights, Somewhere, Everywhere and Time” - Kathryn McNeilly (Queen’s University Belfast)
11:30-12:15	Discussion

Moderator: Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarin - Discussant: Luis Eslava

Conference lunch –for speakers only– 12:30-14:00

14:30-17:00 – Panel III – Representing Movement

Room S6

14:30-14:45	“Laws of Yesterday’s Wars: A Spatio-Temporal Analysis” - Samuel White (Adelaide Law School)
14:45-15:00	“Beyond Faithful Observance: Japan’s Complex Entanglement with International Law during World War II” - Hirofumi Oguri (Okayama University)
15:00-15:15	“The Models of Global Environmental Law that Computer Assisted Research Help Us See” - Natasha Affolder (University of British Columbia)
15:15-15:30	“International Law’s Bus Stops: The Political Economy of Bogotá’s Transmilenio (1990-2020s)” - Juan Diego Dimaté-Gómez (University of Surrey)
15:30-15:45	“Temple of Peace: Legal Ritual at the International Court of Justice” - Valentin Jeutner (Lund University)
15:45-16:00	“Oscillating between rage, cynicism and aspiration: counterfactuals and the imagination in TWAIL.” - Ayan Abdirashid Ali (Adelaide Law School)
16:00-16:45	Discussion

Moderator: Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarin - Discussant: Luis Eslava

17:00-19:00 – Concluding Roundtable: The Local and the International

Room S6

17:00-17:15	“International Law and Enclosure of the Commons: a Marxist-post Structuralist Approach” - Negar Mansouri
17:15-17:30	Crafting the (Segregated) Universal: The Carnegie Endowment’s Training Program for Junior Third-World Diplomats in Geneva (1960-1972)” - Soheil Ghasemi
17:30-17:45	“The Myth of the Unlikely Asylum Seeker Stories and the Exclusion of Vernacular Histories” - Derya Çakim,
17:45-18:00	“Political Theology of Jihad : The Jurisprudence of Muhammad ibn Idris al-Sahfi’I (767-820)” - Farzad Fallah

18:00-18:15	“International Legal History, Internationally: Meditations on an Organizational Pilgrimage into the Archives of Global Governance (2020-2024)” - Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarín (All speakers, Geneva Graduate Institute)
18:15-19:00	Discussion

Moderator: Juan Diego Dimaté-Gómez - Discussant: Luis Eslava