

Workshop Series:

Decolonisation Now: Histories, Politics, and Possibilities

Organisers:

Atwa Jaber, Devarya Srivastava, and Nicolas Hafner.

Doctoral Researchers (SNSF-Doc.CH), Geneva Graduate Institute

With the support of the Center for Digital Humanities and Multilateralism and in collaboration with the Department of International History and Politics

Part 2:

12-13 May 2025

Decolonisation and its Forms of Knowledge:
*Histories, Pedagogies, Methods &
Praxis

Primary contacts:

Nicolas Hafner (general): nicolas.hafner@graduateinstitute.ch

Vidya Puttur (logistics): vidya.puttur@graduateinstitute.ch

Venue:

Geneva Graduate Institute

Chem. Eugène-Rigot 2, 1202 Geneva

Program:

Day 1: Monday, 12 May

	Coffee, The FAB	09:00 - 09:30
Welcome and Introduction	Introductory Remarks & Welcome: Atwa Jaber, Devarya Srivastava, Nicolas Hafner (IHEID) Introduction of CDHM and Archiving Decolonization from Geneva: Grégoire Mallard (IHEID)	09:30 - 10:30 Room S11
Panel 1 (Re)Fashioning a Different World: Selfhood, Culture, Society	Chair: Umut Yıldırım (IHEID) Discussant: Musab Younis (University of Oxford) Presenters: - Devarya Srivastava (IHEID) Autonomy, Circulation, and the Aesthetic Bind: The Case of "Progressive" Indian Writing, c. 1934-1938 - Amal Sachedina (American Museum of Natural History) De-Colonization and Nation-State Building in the Sultanate of Oman: Material Heritage as Development in Discourse and Practice	10:30 - 12:15 Room S11
	Lunch Break	12:15 - 14:00
Panel 2 Pedagogies of/for the Oppressed: Education, Solidarity, Struggle	Chair: Aidan Russell (IHEID) Discussant: Ujju Aggarwal (The New School) Presenters: - Nicolas Hafner (IHEID), Development as Education? Consciousness-raising, Political Struggle and the Third World. A Perspective from Geneva - Idriss Jebari (Trinity College Dublin) Tradition, Decolonized Sociology and the Cultural Turn in Tunisia, 1970s-80s - Mora McLean (George Washington University) A History of Twentieth Century Transnational Black Freedom Struggle at the Intersection between Decolonization and Education: The Case of the African American Institute	14:00 - 15:45 Room S11
	Coffee Break, The FAB	15:45 - 16:15
Panel 3 Discrepant Pedagogies: Gender, Sexuality, Indigeniety	Chair: Nicole Bourbonnais (IHEID) Discussant: Agustina Solera (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Presenters: - Ibtesam Al-Atiyat (St. Olaf College) Reclaiming Liberation Histories: Feminism from the Margins of the MENA Region - Dinara Assanova (Kazakh State Pedagogical University) Decolonizing Women's 'Difficult' Histories: Reimagining Knowledge Production through an Online Museum - Carsten Wergin (Ruprecht-Karls-University Heidelberg) Decolonizing Knowledge Production Heritage. Education and the Politics of Voice in Settler-Colonial Australia	16:15 - 18:00 Room S11

Day 2:

Tuesday, 13 May

Panel 4
*The Public Lives of Decolonisation:
Museums,
Classrooms,
Audiences*

Coffee, The FAB

10:00 - 10:30

Chair: Bernard Keo (IHEID)
Discussant: Marianne Guarino-Huet & Olivier Desvoignes
(microsillons)
Presenters:
- Denis Esakov (independent artist) and Marina Solntseva
(Freie Universität Berlin) Open Air Museum of Decoloniality on Alexanderplatz and OTHERARCHIVES
- Lisa Ezrati (independent researcher) Decolonizing from the Margins: Virtual Museums in the Context of War
- Alexandra Krebs (PH Zurich) History(s) for a Global Present. Digital Co-creation in Schools and Museums

10:30 - 12:15

Room S11

Lunch Break

12:15 - 14:00

Closed roundtable discussion with all participants

14:15 - 16:00
Room S7

Concluding Plenary
Roundtable
*Pedagogies of/for a Radical Hope.
Reflections,
Propositions,
Speculations*

Moderator: Atwa Jaber (IHEID)
Panelists:
- Ujju Aggarwal, The New School (online)
- Pierre-Etienne Bourneuf, IHEID, before UN Office Geneva
- Olivier Desvoignes, microsillons
- Marianne Guarino-Huet, microsillons
- Agustina Solera, Erasmus University Rotterdam
- Musab Younis, University of Oxford

18:15 - 20:00

Auditorium A2