

PROGRAMME INSIGHT SERIES

Wondering where your future begins?

Start here.

Join our Programme Insight Series featuring interactive Webinars that put you in conversation with our faculty members and expert panelists from every corner of the Institute.

Go beyond course catalogs. Learn how theory meets practice in today's world. Discover what you'll actually learn, how you'll grow, and why our interdisciplinary approach works!

Get the insider perspective on how to stand out, what we're really looking for, and how to make your application shine.

International Law

Climate Change, Human Rights, and the Law

Prof. Anne Saab

Why is Studying International Law more important than ever?

Date 02.10

Time: 2pm

Prof. Andrew Clapham

Digital Sovereignty and the Regulation of Online Platforms

Date 06.10

Time: 2pm

Prof. Neha Mishra

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2023 cohort)
are employed one year after graduation:

PUBLIC SECTOR
(including International Organisations)

46%

NOT-PROFIT SECTOR

12%

PRIVATE SECTOR

16%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

26%

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2022 cohort)
are employed one year after graduation:

PUBLIC SECTOR
(including International Organisations)

23%

NOT-PROFIT SECTOR

11%

PRIVATE SECTOR

4%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

62%

International Relations/ Political Science

Education, SDGs, and the Future of International Higher Education

Date: TBD

Time: 2pm

Prof. Chanwoong Baek

From Campus to Country: IRPS Alumni Leading Change Across Borders

Date: 09.10

Time: 2pm

Panelists: TBD

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2022 cohort)
are employed one year after graduation:

PUBLIC SECTOR
(including International Organisations)

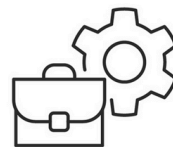

39%

NOT-PROFIT SECTOR

24%

PRIVATE SECTOR

18%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

19%

International and Development Studies

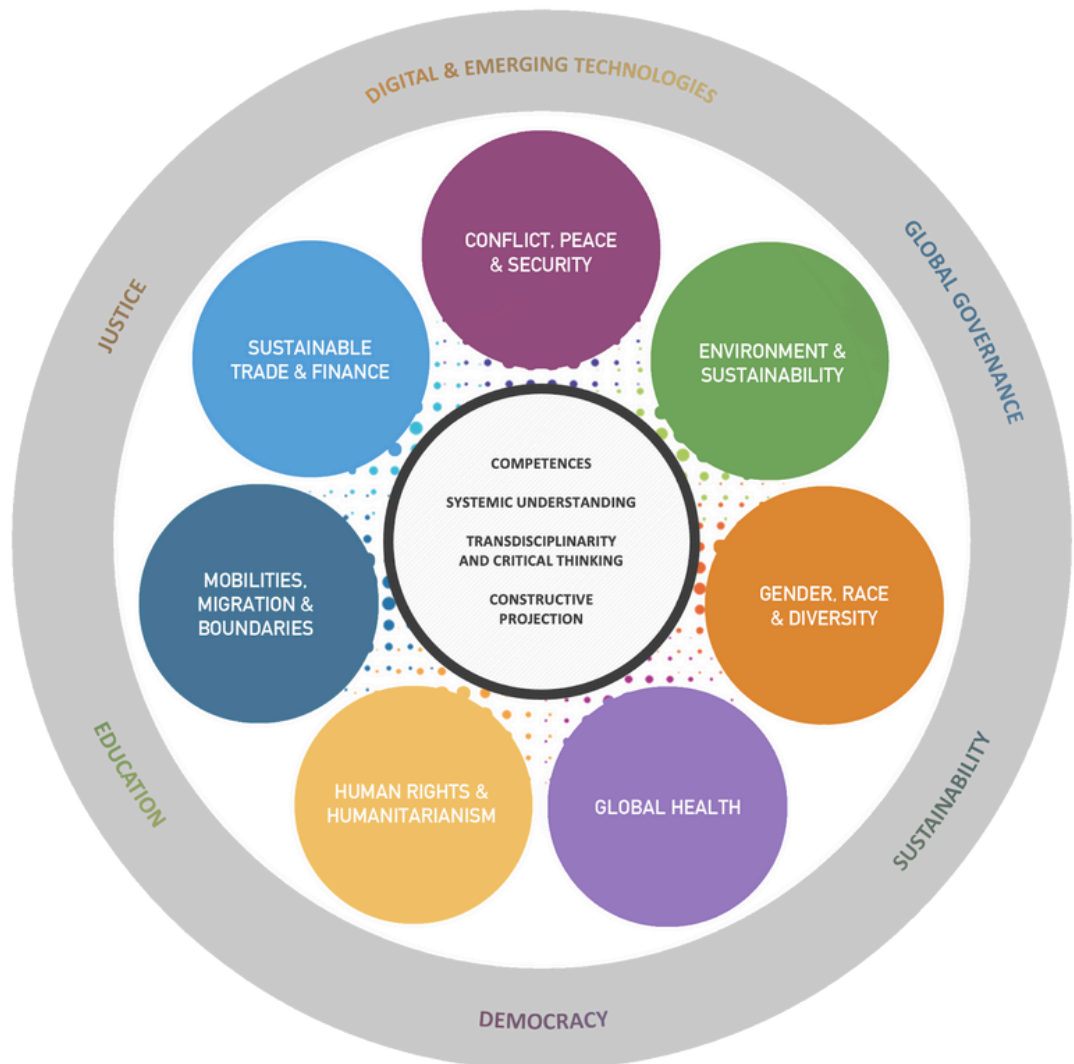

MINT Programme : Insights for Prospective Students

MINT Programme : Insights for Prospective Students

Date: 09 October 2025

Time: 2pm

Panelists: Prof. Davide Rodogno, Claudia Seymour, Guillemette Carlucci, and Admissions

International History and Politics

Regional Expertise: Why It Matters

Prof. Bernard Keo, Cyrus Schayegh

Multilateralism 2.0: Time for Diplomats to Step Up

Date 05.11

Time: 2pm

Prof. Jussi Hanhimäki

IHP Alumni: Where Can This Programme Take You?

Date: 10.10

Time: 2pm

Panelists: TBD

History, AI, and the Power of Critical Thinking

Prof. Cyrus Schayegh

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2022 cohort)
are employed one year after graduation:

PUBLIC SECTOR
(including International Organisations)

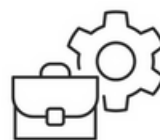

28%

NOT-PROFIT SECTOR

15%

PRIVATE SECTOR

18%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

39%

International Economics

The Economic Consequences of the Trump Administration

Prof. Ugo Panizza, Beatrice Weder

Money without Borders: Financial Globalisation in a Low-Rate World

Prof. Cedric Tille

Economics of Peace and Conflict: Policies for a More Stable World

Prof. Dominic Rohner

Minerals of the Future: Geopolitics, Climate, and the Global Economy

Date: 04.11

Time: 1pm

Prof. Joelle Noailly

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2022 cohort)
are employed one year after graduation:

GOVERNMENT &
CENTRAL BANKS

11%

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

35%

NON-PROFIT SECTOR

4%

PRIVATE SECTOR

11%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

39%

Anthropology and Sociology

Thinking Out Loud - In Context - Navigating the Job Market

Panelists: Jasmine Have, Victoria Pittet

Thinking Out Loud - In Context - From Classrooms to Fieldwork

Panelists: Graziella Moraes Dias Da Silva, Minhua Ling

Thinking Out Loud - In Context - Why Social Theory Is Worth It?

Date: 30.09

Time: 1pm

Prof. Felipe Calvao

Thinking Out Loud - In Context - Settling into Geneva: Life Beyond Campus

Date: 2.10

Time: 1pm

Panelists: Saswot Shrestha, Kirsten Henderson and current student

Thinking Out Loud - In Context - Admissions Insights: Behind the Scenes

Date: 6.11

Time: 2pm

Panelists: Saswot Shrestha & Kirsten Henderson & Michal Sela

Where our Master's programme alumni (2019-2023 cohort) are employed one year after graduation.

PUBLIC SECTOR
(including International Organisations)

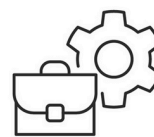

29%

NOT-PROFIT SECTOR

20%

PRIVATE SECTOR

12%

ACADEMIC SECTOR

39%

ONE YEAR AFTER

(CLASS OF 2021 IN 2022)

One year after their graduation, 52% of our graduates choose to stay in Switzerland while the rest went off to work all around the world.

