

Faculty of Social and Political Sciences

Centre d'histoire internationale et d'études politiques de la mondialisation (CRHIM)

Voices from the Margins: Rethinking Neoliberalism from Latin America

09.00 – 09.15 | Opening Remarks

Janick Schaufelbuehl & Carlo Edoardo Altamura

09.15 – 10.45 | Panel 1: (Re)constructing Neoliberal Narratives

Chair: Juan Flores Zendejas (Université de Genève)

Paula Vedoveli (Getulio Vargas Foundation)

A Narrative of Conviction: The Rise of Economic Growth Indicators in Authoritarian Brazil (1960s–1970s)

Matilde Ciolli (Università Valle d'Aosta)

Álvaro Alsogaray and the Making of Argentine Neoliberalism

Germano Ribeiro (Federal University of Rio de Janeiro)

Using Congressional Debates to Map Tax Rhetoric in Latin America (2000s): An Exploratory Study of Reforms in Brazil and Argentina

10.45 – 11.15 | Coffee Break

11.15 – 12.45 | Panel 2: Peripheral Agents of Neoliberal Order

Chair: Janick Schaufelbuehl (University of Lausanne)

José Antonio Galindo Domínguez (Centro Universitario Anglo Mexicano)

The Invisible Hands of the Market: Private Organizations and the Architecture of NAFTA's Neoliberal Order

Ricardo Hernán Valenzuela (Universidad Diego Portales)

Reframing the Crisis: The Instituto de Economía Política and the Contested Neoliberal Imagination in Chile, 1982–1985

Anna Rangel (University of São Paulo)

The 1987 Brazilian Moratorium as Peripheral Agency: Debtor States, Global Financial Hierarchy, and Negotiation Strategies

12.45 – 13.45 | Lunch Break

13.45 – 15.15 | Panel 3: Contested Grounds of Neoliberal Reform

Chair: Sebastian Alvarez (Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez)

Victoria Basualdo (CONICET Argentina)

Economic and Labor Transformations of the Steel Sector in Argentina (1970s–1990s): The Case of Acindar Villa Constitución

Margarita Fajardo (Sarah Lawrence College)

Chile's Neoliberal Nationalization: Copper Sovereignty and the Failed Promise of Foreign Investment

Laurent Mauron (University of Lausanne)

The Zapatistas and Neoliberal Reforms (1994–1996): From an Indigenous Uprising to the Construction of a Universal Cause

15.15 – 15.45 | Coffee Break

15.45 – 17.15 | Panel 4: IFIs and the Contested International Neoliberal Agenda

Chair: Rui Esteves (Geneva Graduate Institute)

Fernanda Conforto de Oliveira & Carlo Edoardo Altamura (University of Lausanne)

Who Learned What? Revisiting IMF and World Bank Engagement in the 1982 Mexican Debt Crisis

Gabriella Lima (University of Lausanne)

Global Pressures, Local Resistance: IFIs and the Struggles over Wage Policy Reform in Brazil (1982–1983)

Claudia Kedar (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

Argentine-Style Neoliberalization: Carlos Menem, the World Bank, and State Transformation, 1989–1999

17.30 – 19.00 | Round Table: Rethinking Latin America's Place in the Global History of Neoliberalism

Moderator: Carlo Edoardo Altamura

Claudia Kedar; Victoria Basualdo; Margarita Fajardo

The roundtable will be broadcast live via this link :

<https://teams.microsoft.com/join/34754252986564?p=3BbXv3xq68TlywNU8N>

19.00 – 19.15 | Closing Remarks

Carlo Edoardo Altamura

Thursday, 5 March 2026
9.00 – 19.15

Amphipôle Building, Room 342
University of Lausanne

Workshop convened under the SNSF project "A Matter of Life and Debt: The Lost Decade and the Rise of Neoliberalism from Latin America, 1982–1994"

Register here :

