

MODULE 2: The Rise of the Rest: Rethinking Global Governance in A World of Multiples | 13-17 July 2026

	MONDAY 13 July	TUESDAY 14 July	WEDNESDAY 15 July	THURSDAY 16 July	FRIDAY 17 July
9:15 - 9:30	Module Introduction
9.30 – 10.45	Global Governance In A World Of Multiples	From 9.15 am to 10.45 am International Law And The Fabric Of Global Governance Critical Perspective	9.00 am Presentation of the Graduate Institute's Programmes (optional)	Regional Governance The African Union	Rethinking Peace Processes
11.00 – 12.30	Group Work	Conversation with the Ambassador from Sierra Leone	International Migration Governance	Regional Governance In Latin/Central America	Rethinking European Union/ African Union Relations In Global Context
LUNCH BREAK
13.30 – 15.00	Global Governance in A World Of Multiples	New relations Asia/Africa	Visit IO	A Conversation with Senior officials in International Organisations in Geneva	Working Groups Presentation
15:15-16:30	Rethinking Digital Trade and Economy Governance: Perspectives from the Developing World	Security and governance in Africa/China: role of private military companies		A Conversation with Junior international UN Staff in Geneva	Summary and Conclusions Followed by a Cocktail