

NEWSLETTER AUTUMN 2025

As the new semester gets underway, the Global Migration Centre is pleased to share recent news, upcoming events, and research updates from our community. Explore highlights below and join us in Geneva for talks and discussions throughout the season.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Migration Talks — Migrant Solidarity: Creating a new “We”

Fri 17 October, 14:15 CET

With professor Jacqueline Bhabha

Migration Talks — Non-signatory States in International Refugee Law

Thu 27 November, 18:15 CET

With professor Maja Janmyr

Book Launch: Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Migration and Asylum Law

Thu 18 December

Join us in celebrating the International Migrants Day with the release of the Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Migration and Asylum Law.

NEWS

New Research Project: Actors beyond the territorial state and durable solutions to internal displacement in international law

Duration: 2026–2029 · PI: Deborah Casalin. This SNSF Ambizione project examines obligations of actors beyond the territorial state—such as third states, international organisations, businesses, NGOs, and armed groups—in realising durable solutions for internally displaced person

Global Migration Award 2025: Claire Elizabeth Eastwood

Claire Elizabeth Eastwood wins the 2025 Global Migration Award for her ANSO master's thesis on affective credibility in asylum adjudication.

Geneva Challenge 2025: The Challenges of Migration

Finalists for this year's Geneva Challenge have been announced. The Award Ceremony will be held at the Geneva Graduate Institute on Wednesday, 19 November 2025 at 18:30.

Book release: Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Migration and Asylum Law

GMC Director Vincent Chetail publishes a concise reference on migration and asylum law, offering accessible entries for scholars and practitioners.

Executive Education Course: Decoding Migration Governance

3 - 30 November 2025

Migration remains one of today's most pressing global challenges, often surrounded by misconceptions and political debates. This fully online course equips participants with the skills and knowledge to critically analyse migration governance at both national and international levels.

Podcast: Humanitarian Law on trial

Vincent Chetail, addresses the complex and urgent questions surrounding the conflict in Gaza and the broader implications for international humanitarian law in the 14 July episode of the Geneva Graduate Institute's "What Matters Today" podcast.

Digital technologies, mobility, and border violence in European borderlands

Nina Khamsy (ANSO)

The Right to Truth for Families of Missing Migrants under International Human Rights Law

Fekade Alemayhu Abebe (International Law)

How exclusion affects the political engagement of migrants in residence and origin countries

Agnese Cecilia Maria Zucca (IR/PS)

Measurements that Matter: Data Practices under the Global Compact on Refugees

Augusta Nannerini (IR/PS)

Copyright © 2025 Geneva Graduate Institute | Com, All rights reserved.
You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from all emails and mailing lists

You have received this message because you have indicated interest in the Geneva Graduate Institute's activities. This email has been sent with Mailchimp.