SEMESTER 1

Social Theory

- Get familiar with authors and concepts
- Situate anthropological and sociological schools of thought

Research Methods

- Develop skills in various techniques
- Interpret and integrate different types of data

SEMESTER 2

Research Design

- Build a literature review
- Relate theory with case and methods

Ethnographic Fieldwork

- Learn by doing
- Practice ethnographic research

SEMESTER 3

Possibilities of Exchanges

- Study and carry out research at one of our 50+ partner institutions
- Explore new cultures and different academic environments

SEMESTER 4

MA THESIS

Ethnographic Writing

- Use your data from fieldwork to craft your MA thesis
- Build your argument

Elective Courses

Focus on specific themes: concepts and debates in development, international governance, violence and conflict, migration, biomedicines, markets and labour, inequality, gender, rural/urban, environment, visual anthropology…